Heart and Soul Meditation Series

As a Scenic Photographer and Clinical Social Worker, I put my Heart and Soul into all aspects of my life's work. The Pacific Northwest and specifically Orcas Island in the San Juan Islands of Washington State have inspired me for years. This region brings together the beauty and healing force of nature.

I hope you will enjoy this DVD presentation and use it as I do: to remember and refresh, as well as to wash away stress. I invite you to replace old discomfoting memories with these new inspiring and enlivening sights and scenes.

Whatever a scene means to you and whatever it evokes in you, I hope you will allow my art to touch your Heart and Soul.

"I wish you all the Joy and Beauty that life has to offer."
